

This would create a burden that small market broadcasters could not bear. It would be too costly to continue to serve small communities while trying to keep a recorded record of every moment of programing. Also, note WYSH has been on the air since 1960 without ever having a compliant filed against it. Should small home Town stations carry the burden of the Vulgar large market stations or jocks. Please reconsider.